18th Sunday after Pentecost

A big crowd of people came to hear Jesus preach near a lake. Jesus saw that there were two fishing boats at the beach so He went to Simon's Boat, climbed in, and told him to go a little way into the lake. Jesus preached from the boat so that everyone could hear. When he was finished he told Simon, go to the deep water and let down your fishing net. Simon said "I've fished all day, and there are no fish around. But Lord, if you say so, I will go to the deep." Simon threw his net into the water and caught a huge amount of fish. So many that he needed his partners in the other boat to come and help bring them all in. Simon seeing this miracle said "Lord, I'm not worthy of Your presence", but to this Jesus replied "Simon, from now on I want you to fish for people." So Simon agreed and left everything to follow Jesus.

You can read today's Gospel reading at home with your family. You can find it in the Gospel of Luke in chapter 5 in verses 1-11.

Jesus called Simon to follow him and to catch people.
Can you help Simon and his partners get from their boats to Jesus so they can start their new job?

You can catch people for me too.
To whom will YOU tell the Good News?
