Twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost, Tone 7. Holy Martyrs Acepimas the Bishop (378), Joseph the Priest and Aithalis the Deacon (379). Dedication of the Church of the Holy Great Martyr George in Lydda, where His Precious Body is Entombed.

Did Jesus have a brother?

Thank you for your question. It is one that comes up often, especially as we come across verses such as the one in Mark 6:3 when Jesus preached in the synagogue in his hometown of Nazareth. The people there were astounded at his wisdom and miracles and asked, "Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?"

Other examples can be found at Matthew 12:46-47 and 13:55-56; Mark 3:31-32; Luke 8:19-20; John 2:12, 7:3, 7:5 and 7:10; Acts 1:14; and 1 Corinthians 9:5. Then there is the reference to "James, the Lord's brother" in Galatians 1:19. These references make a compelling case for answering your question with a resounding "Yes!"

Yet from the early days of Christianity the Church (East and West) has taught overwhelmingly that Mary is the Ever-Virgin. To put it in the words of the prayer of the Eastern Churches, Mary is "Virgin before childbirth, and Virgin in childbirth, and still a Virgin after childbirth" (see <https://www.goarch.org/-/the-ever-virginity-of-the-mother-of-god>). In addition, in Eastern Christian iconography the three golden stars on Mary's veil depict her virginity before, during, and after the birth of her son Jesus. As such, we believe that Jesus had no brothers or sisters from Mary.

This is the official belief even today for Eastern Orthodox, Eastern Catholics, Roman Catholics and some Anglicans and Lutherans. It is interesting to note...

Saints of the Day from OCA.org:

Hieromartyrs Akepsimas, Bishop in Persia, Presbyter Joseph, and Deacon Aeithalas

Commemorated on November 3

Martyrs Akepsimas the Bishop, Joseph the Presbyter and Aeithalas (Aeithalás) the Deacon of Persia were leaders of the Christian Church in the Persian city of Naesson. His flock devotedly loved their hierarch for his ascetic life and tireless pastoral work.

The emperor Sapor ordered his men to seek out and kill Christian clergy. Saint Akepsimas also was arrested, even though he was already an eighty-year-old man. They took him to the city of Arbela, where he came before the judge Ardarkh, a pagan priest of the sun god. The holy Elder refused to offer sacrifice to the Persian gods. For this he was fiercely beaten and thrown into prison, where on the following day the seventy-year-old priest Joseph and the deacon Aeithalas were severely beaten and thrown into jail with him. For three years the saints were held in confinement, and suffered from hunger and thirst.

Emperor Sapor came to the temple of the god of fire, located not far from Arbela, and wanted to take a look at the three holy martyrs. Exhausted and covered with festering wounds, the saints were brought before the emperor. When he asked them to worship the pagan gods they firmly refused, confessing their faith in Christ instead.

The holy bishop was beheaded, but the presbyter and deacon were taken into the city to be stoned.

The execution of the presbyter Joseph was prolonged for several hours. A guard was placed near the place of execution, so that Christians would not take the body of the holy martyr. On the fourth night a strong windstorm raged near the city, lightning killed the guard, the wind tossed stones about, and the body of Saint Joseph disappeared.

Deacon Aeithalas was taken to the village of Patrias, where he was stoned. Christians secretly buried his body. A tree grew on the saint's grave, and its fruit brought healings.

Your bottles and cans, as well as some donations, has raised $593.20 for the youth to use for charitable projects and our parish's Youth Ministry. Thank you to all who contributed.

A week ago on Sunday afternoon here at Holy Cross we had a

Dough Doves and Wheat Weaving Workshop

put together by our Cultural Director. Apparently this event went well. Thank you to all who helped put this together. Below are some photos from this event. If you wish to learn more about how this went, and if you wish to learn or suggest more traditional arts, please talk to any of the people you recognize in the pictures or our Cultural Director Maryyka Bodnar.

Coats, and boots, and hats, and gloves for kids in our schools!

Last week some volunteers from our parish delivered the warm winter clothing that was collected over the past couple months, so that children who might not be able to afford these necessities can stay warm. A huge thank you to all the parishioners and organizations who contributed to this very necessary project. The clothing was delivered to three inner-city schools of the Edmonton Catholic School District: St. Teresa of Calcutta School, St. Alphonsus School and St. Gerard School.

... that the primary Protestant Reformers of the 16th century (Martin Luther, John Calvin and Huldrych Zwingli) believed in Mary's perpetual virginity, as did the 18th century founder of Methodism, John Wesley (see <https://aleteia.org/2013/10/10/a-protestant-defense-of-marys-perpetual-virginity/>).

So what do we make of this use of the term "brothers and sisters"? Catholic and Orthodox commentators explain that the Greek word for brother (adelphos) does not only mean blood brother born from the same mother. It is often used to describe extended family relationships such as cousins, step-brothers, half-brothers, nephews and, in its feminine form, step-sisters, half-sisters and nieces. The same is true for Hebrew and Aramaic, and many modern languages as well.

This understanding is supported, among other Church writings, by a highly respected work from the mid-2nd century called the Protoevangelium of James ("the first proclamation of James"). Although it is not found among the books of the Bible, it is the basis for the feasts of Mary which we celebrate: her conception by St. Anne, her birth, her entrance into the temple.

According to the Protoevangelium, St. Joseph was an elderly widower with children, and it is these who are called the "brothers and sisters of the Lord."

Register your child today! Orientation begins November 16th.

For more information please see an older bulletin (available online on our parish website), or talk to Fr. Bo or Mariyka Bodnar.

To register go to our parish website and hit the First Solemn Communion button. EHCUCP.ca

For your further reflection, I would offer you a passage from Luke 8:19-21. When Jesus is told by a crowd gathered to hear him speak, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you," Jesus responds: "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it."

As you and I are called to hear God's word, to act upon it and to be faithful to it, we too are numbered among the "brothers and sisters" of Our Lord.

Your brother in Christ, Father Stephen
