35th Sunday After Pentecost

A wealthy ruler came up to Jesus and asked “Hey, Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit everlasting life?” Jesus said, “Why do you call me Good? Only God is Good. Anyway, you need to follow God’s commandments.” The wealthy man said “I do that.” Then Jesus said, “There is one more thing you need to do. Give away all your stuff to the poor and then follow me.” That wealthy man left in a sad mood because he loved his stuff. Jesus turned to his friends and said, “It is hard for wealthy people to inherit everlasting life. It would be easier for a camel to go through a needle’s hole.” The friends thought about it and wondered if anyone could do it then. Jesus told them “With God anything is possible.”

You can read the Gospel describing this in Luke 18:18-27

The wealthy ruler attached a strings to several objects that he is planning to give away. He is ready to give some away now, and these he hold's the end of the strings to. But other things he is not ready to give up yet, so he has tied them to a tree. Which 3 items is he planning to give away first?
