36th Sunday After Pentecost

Everyone in Israel knew that a Saviour was coming who would be a great, great, great (bunch of times over) grandkid of King David, because Scripture recorded God promising it. But most people could not see that Jesus was that Saviour.

As Jesus was walking to the city of Jericho with a crowd, a man who could not see, he was blind, recognized that Jesus was the promised one Who would put things right. He cried out “Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me!” Some of the crowd tried to tell him to be quiet, but the blind man cried out even louder: “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me.” Jesus heard the man’s cry, came over to him, and gave the man sight. Everyone was amazed and glorified God.

You can read the Gospel describing this in Luke 18:35-43.

Sometimes people tell us to stop doing what is right. However if we know it is indeed right, we must keep moving forward.

Can you help Jesus find the right path to get to the blind man?
