Second Sunday after Pentecost. All Saints of Rus-Ukraine

Jesus wanted to invite people to join him. He went to the sea of Galilee and saw some fishermen fishing there. The fishermen were not able to catch any fish. Then Jesus said to Peter, “Come follow me”. Peter recognized that Jesus was super special and so he went to help Jesus catch people for God.

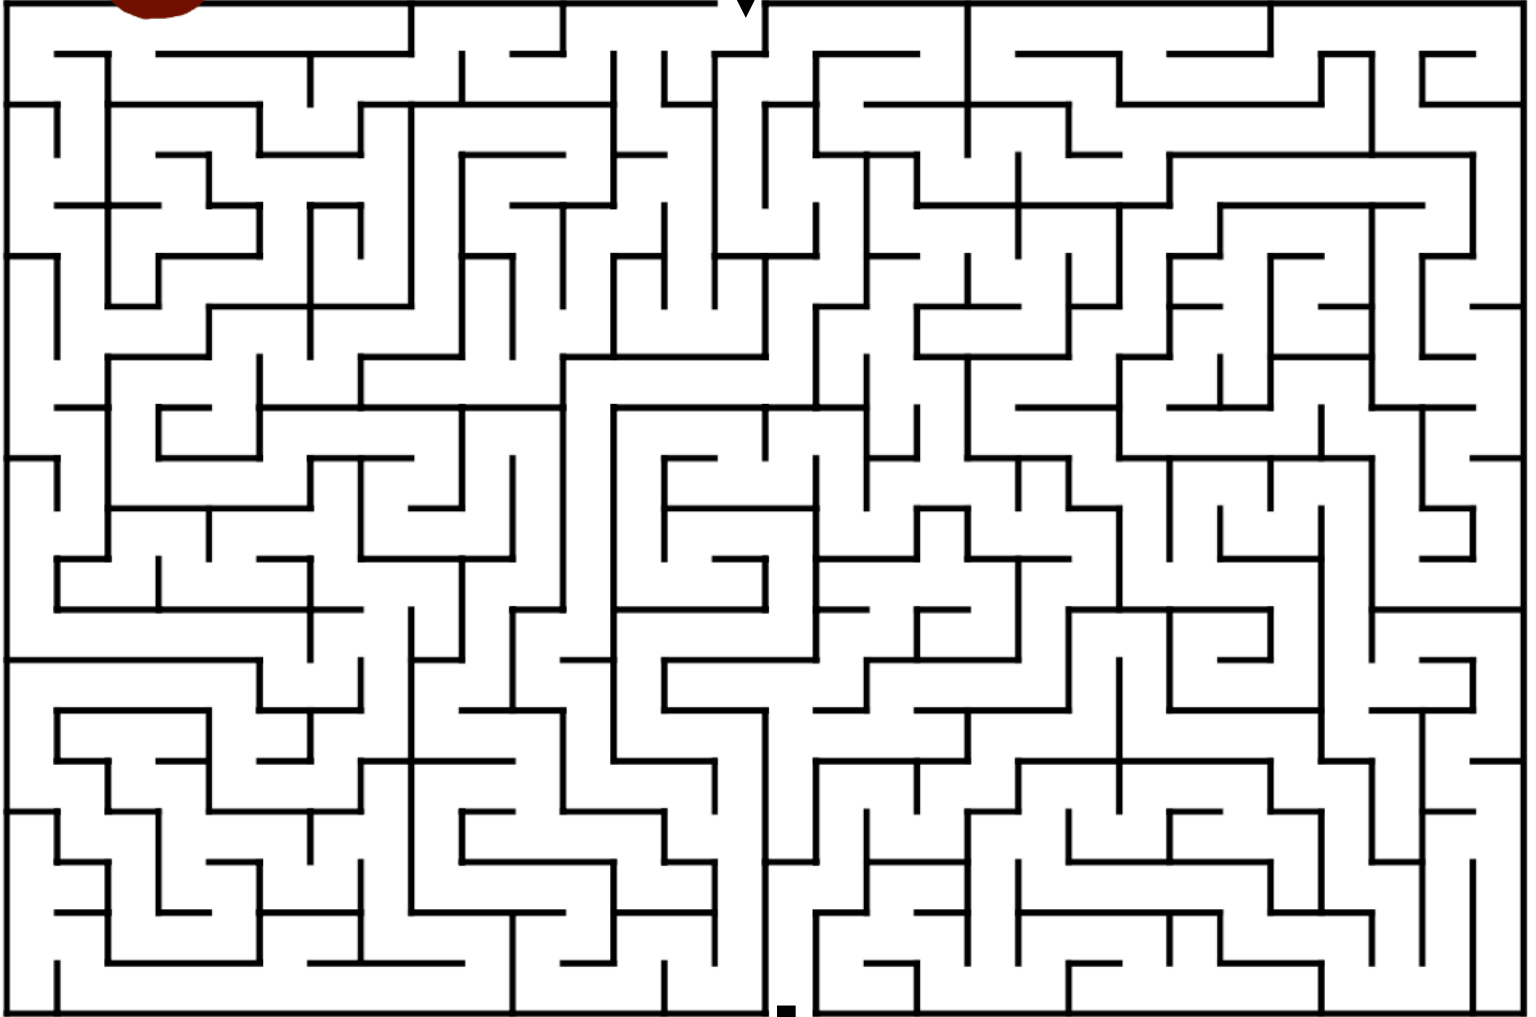

You can read today's Gospel with your family. It is found here: Matthew 4:18-23.

Jesus went far and wide to call all people to follow Him.

Will you follow Jesus, and call people to Love God the Father?

Can you follow Jesus' path to the fishermen?

Did you know that you can invite your friends to come with you to Church on Sundays? At Church they too can learn about God and how to follow Him.
