22nd Sunday after Pentecost

The rich man did not care about the poor man named Lazarus. Instead he ate from fancy dishes and partied all the time. Lazarus however was always hungry and sick. He wished he could eat the rich man's leftovers.

They both died. Lazarus went to heaven, but the once rich man didn't. Seeking help the former rich man asked for Lazarus to serve him, but Father Abraham said, "Sorry, you didn't help Lazarus, and Lazarus now cant help you. The rich man though of his brothers, but Abraham said "No they need to listen to what God has already given them."

You can read today's Gospel reading at home with your family.
You can find it in the Gospel of Luke in chapter 16 in verses 19 - 31.

Money and wealth itself isn't bad, but sometimes having too many things keeps us from seeing God.

Can you help the rich man navigate through his house so that he can get to Lazarus?
