27th Sunday after Pentecost

Jesus was teaching when a woman who was all crooked because of a spirit within her came up to him. He said to her “Hey woman, you are set free of your crookedness today.” When he said this she straightened up and the bad spirit went away. Other people who saw this gave Jesus heck, because that was a special day, and they believed that nobody should do stuff that day. Jesus however said to them “You guys do stuff on this day like leading your animals to water. Isn’t this woman much more important than your animals?” They knew she was and they felt ashamed.

You can read today’s Gospel with your family. It can be found in the Gospel of Luke in Chapter 13 verses 10 - 17.

God wants us to do good things and to spend time with Him every week on His special Holy Day. This is still true, like it was long ago. Can you find these words below which are good things to do even on a Sunday?
