Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

Jesus saw a man who could not move and said to him “Cheer up. Your sins are forgiven.” Some people said “Hey, wait a minute. Only God can forgive sins.” Jesus responded “Why are you guys cranky? Is it easier to say “Your sins are forgiven? Or is it easier to say “Get up, pick up your bed and walk?” So that you know that I can forgive sins, I say to this man “Stand up, grab your bed and go.” The crowds who were watching this happen were very happy that the man could move, and they all praised God.

You can read today's Gospel with your family. It is found here: Matthew 9:1-8.

There are lots and lots of people who praise and thank God for all the good there is. These people are happy and smiling.

Some people choose not to love God. They are not smiling. Can you find the 5 not happy people in this picture?
