Sunday of the Publican and Pharisee

Jesus told a story about two men who went to the temple to pray. One of them went to the front of the temple, where everyone could see him, and he prayed like this: “God, thank you for making me so great. I do everything right, unlike that other man.” The other man stayed at the back and prayed like this “God have mercy on me a sinner.” Then Jesus said, “All who raise themselves up will be humbled, and all those who are humbled will be raised up.”

You can read this Gospel passage in the Gospel of Luke 18:10-14.
