16th Sunday after Pentecost

A wealthy man gave his servants some money. To one he gave 5 bags, to another 2 bags, and to the third he gave 1 bag. Then the wealthy man went on a trip. When he returned home he asked the servants about the money. The first one used the 5 bags and made 5 more for a total of 10 bags! The wealthy man was happy with this servant. The servant who received 2 bags similarly doubled the money and had 4 bags now. The wealthy man was happy with this servant too. The third servant however did not do anything with the bag of money, he just buried it in the ground. The rich man said, "That was a waste of time. You should have used the money to make a profit." The one bag was taken away from this third servant, and he was removed from the rich mans service.

You can read today's Gospel reading at home with your family. You can find it in the Gospel of Matthew in chapter 25 in verses 14-30.
